

I would prefer that the FCC NOT allow indiscriminate tapping of internet connections and data flowing through central routers. In cases where tapping is required and sanctioned by valid warrant, then the data should be filtered such that only the data allowed by the warrant is extracted.